

When I come home from work the last thing I want to listen to is telemarketing sales pitches. Family time is rare in my home so when we do get to spend time together as a family we dont want to be interrupted. Please uphold the Wisconsin No call list law!!!!